

6.2 The deposit of the thesis

The deposit of the thesis is the registration of the final draft of the thesis, prior to the defence.

The deposit will be made once the external evaluation process has been completed and after the authorization of the thesis supervisors and the Academic Committee of the Doctoral Program.

In this link you will find detailed information on this management.