

3.1.2. What facilities are available for users with functional diversity?

The Central Library and the Civil Engineering Library are fully accessible to disabled users.

You can check the conditions for other libraries in the document Libraries for all.

There are also adapted group work study rooms in the Central Library and most of the branch libraries.

Moreover, there is a preferential information point at the information desk in the Central Library.