

5.1 Planing a research stay outside UPV

UPV doctoral students can do research stays in research centers outside this University. The suitability of the destination center should be discussed with the thesis supervisors. These research stays must be authorized by the thesis supervisors and by the Academic Committee of the doctoral program, prior to the stay.

You can find more detailed information at this link.