

2.7.2. How can I find theses at UPV?

The UPV Libraries collection includes theses in both printed and electronic formats,

UPV doctoral theses can be accessed in several ways:

- Via the institutional repository RiuNet. This gives access to the full text in electronic format. You can search for thesis by title, author, etc., or list of all theses from: Communities and collections > Investigación > Tesis doctorales.
- From PoliBuscador > Advanced Search, selecting Dissertations from the Material Type and searching by title, author, subject, etc.
Both printed and electronic theses will be retrieved and accessible from the Internet.
